

Twenty First Annual Celebration of Excellence in Medical Education

March 2021

*Steven M. Scott, MD and Rebecca J. Scott Commons
The George T. Harrell, MD Medical Education Building
Gainesville, FL*

We are very pleased to welcome everyone to Medical Education Week where we recognize the educational accomplishments and contributions of our faculty and residents, highlight innovations and timely topics impacting medical education and conclude on Friday with the University of Florida medical student MATCH celebration.

Although we will not have our Medical Education Reception due to the COVID -19 pandemic, please congratulate those faculty and residents highlighted in the program.

Information to Medical Education Week presentations can be found at: <https://education.med.ufl.edu/faculty-development/the-society-of-teaching-scholars/medical-education-week/>.

Match Day events will be live streamed beginning Friday, March 19 at 12:15pm. Access to the live stream may be found <https://mediasite.video.ufl.edu/Mediasite/Play/7f8a99e4fcd446fdb6460de4288bc111d>.

Thank you all for your outstanding support of our educational programs within the College of Medicine and University of Florida.
